THE TOP FIFTEEN THINGS NOT TO SAY OR DO and TO SAY OR DO TO SOMEONE EXPERIENCING INFERTILIY

Worry weighs a person down; an encouraging word cheers a person up. —Proverbs 12:25 NLT

DON'T	DO
1. Talk about people you know with infertility. Good or bad stories aren't helpful.	1. Let me talk about my story and listen.
2. Tell me God is in control, has a plan, or knew it was going to happen.	2. Show me God's love.
3. Say "I'll pray for you" unless you mean it, or tell me to pray harder.	3. Pray for and with me.
4. Say "Call me if you need anything."	4. Do something for me.
5. Pity or patronize me.	5. Show compassion.
6. Avoid me. It makes me feel rejected, different.	6. Keep normal contact with me.
7. Act like nothing is happening, minimize my situation, or compare me with someone else.	7. Take your cue from me as to how comfortable I am talking about it.
8. Tell others, unless you have asked permission.	8. Honor my privacy.
9. Offer unsolicited advice or suggestions.	9. Support my choices.
10. Be resentful of how my infertility affects you.	10. Remember, this is about me.
11. Forget about me after the initial flurry of the diagnosis. This could be a long haul; I need you.	11. Let me grieve and that takes time. Stick with me.
12. Say you "understand" how I feel. If you haven't experienced infertility, you don't understand.	12. Listen without trying to "fix" it or make comments.
13. Ask me personal questions or give advice or suggestions.	13. Curtail curiosity.
14. Assume it's a "female" problem.	14. Understand this is personal.
